

Thank you for your interest in submitting a guest blog post to be considered for Creative Living Works. We recommend you follow the guidelines below to increase the odds of your blog being published.

Guest Blog Guidelines:

1. You must submit your own original content. It is acceptable if portions of the blog have been posted elsewhere, but please try to come up with a new spin. Ensure that your post does not violate any copyright laws.
2. The topic should be relevant to Creative Living Works' mission to help creative professionals find a balance between making a living and pursuing their passion. Crossing multiple industries, this does allow for a wide range of topic ideas.
3. Blog length should be about 800- 1500 words.
4. Include a short bio at the end containing 1 - 3 links - either to the author's website, social media handles, or blog.
5. The blog post itself should contain a maximum of 5 links.
6. Please proofread! Check your grammar, sentence structure and spelling prior to submitting.
